

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

8:30—KFI—Howard Marlow and the orchestra, with Soprano Eleanor Stuber, present a special program of Christmas music tonight during "Voice of Firestone."

8:00—KNX—The warm, human Christmas story, "Miracle on 34th Street" has been chosen for the "Radio Theater" presentation tonight. Starring will be Maureen O'Hara and John Payne.

8:30—KFI—The special chorus of 120 voices will present their Christmas program tonight on "Cavalcade."

8:30—KFI—Charlie Chan gives large Christmas toys to small children in order to solve a murder.

8:30—KNX—"Five acts, instead of the usual four" is the only hint Santa Claus Gossfrey is willing to let out of the stocking.

9:00—KNX—"Inner Sanctum" opens the squeaking door and presents a strange story of a strange cat in "Madame Midnight."

9:00—KFI—The Telephone Hour will present their annual program of Christmas music tonight.

TELEVISION—

8:30—Boxing