

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—(Dec. 23)

6:00 KFI—For the eighth successive year "Amos" (Freeman Gosden) and "Andy" (Charles Correll) present their interpretation of "The Lord's Prayer."

6:30 KECA—The brilliant Parisian-born violinist, GINETTE NEVEU, will make her American air debut with the Boston Symphony tonight.

6:30 KNX—Screen Star James Mason plays the lead role, and Soprano Eileen Farrell performs the songs he hears in reverie, the "Studio One" show gets under way with the full-blown drama of "Painted Vells."

7:00 KFI—Singing Star Frances Langford will be the guest of Bob Hope when the show visits and broadcasts from the U. S. Naval Hospital at Corona, Calif., tonight.

7:30 KFI—Red Skelton, as the mean widdle kid, will pay his respects to veterans, when he salutes soldiers of every war since 1776.

8:00 KIJ—The theme of the story of "The Count of Monte Cristo" tonight has to do with the Christmas spirit.

8:30 KNX—Santa Claus plays a double-header when two Kris Kringle appear in the same place.

KFI UNION . . . 8:30—Movie Film