

EVELYN KNIGHT

The wistful voice of Evelyn Knight is raised in song every Wednesday night over WENR on the "Star Theater." Miss Knight will have a new singing mate beginning tonight when Gordon MacRae brings his baritone to the ABC program.

* * *

Tonight's Aces

Documentary

9 p. m.—Report Card (WBBM): Franchot Tone in picture of U.S. education's crisis.

* * *

Music

7 p. m. — Melody Hour (WBBM): "Treasure of Sierra Madre," "Tell Me a Story," "But Beautiful," "How Lucky You Are," "Now is the Hour," "Golden Earrings."

8 p. m. — Mark Warnow (WBBM): "People Will Say We're in Love," "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," "Artist's Life," "Tico Tico," "I'll See You Again," "Vilia."

* * *

Discussion

6:30 p. m. — Arthur Gaeth (WKOW): interviews Sen. Owen Brewster (R-Me.) on Palestine situation.

9 p. m. — Opinion - Aire (WKOW): the Marshall plan.

* * *

Drama

7:30 p. m. — Gildersleeve (WMAQ): Adeline wants to join Gildy's quartet . . . Dr. Christian (WBBM): resolves GI's obsession that one of his eyes be removed.

8:30 p. m.—Mr. D. A. (WIBA): The "Grand Old Man," drunken driving, and the narcotics squad.

9 p. m.—Big Story (WIBA): reporter Aaron Dudley prevents a gun battle.

* * *

Variety

8 p. m. — Duffy's (WIBA): Dorothy Lamour, guest.

9 p. m.—Bing Crosby (WENR): "Wild Bill" Elliott and songstress Peggy Lee in a cattle-rustling horse opera.

9:30 p. m. — Star Theater (WENR): "Four Leaf Clover," "Matinee," "Easter Parade," "Buttons and Bows"—and Alan Young.

* * *

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m.—Vox Pop (WLS): Secretary of National Defense James V. Forrestal from Beacon, N. Y.

* * *

Thursdaytime

9:15 a. m.—On Broadcasts (WHA): "What Needs Doing" by Mrs. T. E. Orbison, president of the Wisconsin division of the American Association of University Women.

10 a. m.—Homemakers' Program (WHA): "The Weight You Want — Appearance," Helen Michels; "Rancidity in Fats," Jobelle Shands.

10:30 a. m.—PTA Program (WHA): The drama of the dependent mother—or is it the dependent child?

10:45 a. m.—Do I Want to Be a Teacher? (WHA): Edward G. Kromrey moderates a parents'