We'll Get That Window, Aging Coach Cries

RICHMOND, Va. —(U.P.)— Each afternoon this baseball season the neighbors have watched an elderly gray-haired man pitch to a seven-year-old boy.

They predict that another Babe Ruth is in the making. But they feel sure, too, that practice on the lawn is nearing an end.

From dribbling grounders to pop flies to healthy whacks, the neighbors have watched the boy's batting eye improve.

One afternoon the youngster leaned into a fast one and poled a long fly that thudded against an opposite apartment building a scant two inches beneath a window.

The neighbors with alarm overheard the elderly gentleman remark as he retrieved the ball:

"We'll get that doggone window yet."

LOVE LIGHT MODERNIZED

BOSTON — (U.P.) — Minot's Light, man-operated since it was established in 1850, has been given a new look. It now is operated automatically, without a light keeper, by what is known as an electric sun dial. Minot's long has been known as the "I Love You" light because of its one-four-three flash.

Milwaukee pianist; John Mungall, Flint tenor; Detroit contestants (on WIBA at 9:30).
