

Evening Highlights

- 6:30—NBC Symphony, Hans Schwelger conducting—WNBC
- 7:00—American Bar Assn. Panel 'Released Time for Religious Instruction'—WICC.
- 7:00—St. Louis Municipal Opera program; Bernice Maledon, soprano and Norman Young baritone—WCBS.
- 7:30—Curtain Time: 'The Worm Turns', comedy—WNBC.
- 7:30—Sat. Night Serenade at new time; Vic Damone and Hollace Shaw—WCBS.
- 7:30—Scenes from Puccini's 'Mme. Butterfly'—WQXR.
- 8:00—'Sing It Again' with Patti Clayton, Alan Dale and Bob Howard—WCBS.
- 8:00—'Twenty Questions' with James Dunn—WICC, WOR
- 8:30—'Stop Me If You've Heard This One' with Harry Ross—WICC, WOR
- 8:00—'Three for the Money' with Russ Emery, Mary Small and Mark Warnow orchestra—WICC, WOR
- 8:00—Hit Parade, Frank Sinatra and Beryl Davis—WNBC
- 8:00—Sonata Recital Felix Salmond, cello; Nadia Rosenberg piano—WQXR.
- 8:30—'What's My Name?' with Ariane Francis—WNAE*
- 8:30—Vaughn Monroe show with the Deep River Boys—WCBS
- 10:00—Chicago Theater, with Martha King soprano, and Bruce Foste, baritone—WICC, WOR
- 10:00—PREMIERE 'Radio City Playhouse' presenting Junkin's 'Long Distance'—WNBC
- 10:00—Jazz at Its Best; Ella Fitzgerald, guest—WJN
- 10:30—Grand Ole Opry; Tex Williams, guest—WNBC
- 10:30—'It Pays to Be Ignorant' with Patti Clayton and Sidney Franklin, Brooklyn-born comedian—WCBS.
- 11:00—Post-Telegram Local News—WNAE