

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

11:15 a.m.-WMAQ-Listen to Youth-Speakers: National Student association members in conference at the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

11:30-WLS-The American Farmer, broadcast from Iowa State fair, Des Moines.

11:45-WAAF-William Mara will discuss international air races to start Sept. 4 from Long Beach, Cal.

12:00-WMAQ-Farm and Home Hour. Speakers are soil scientists attending the American Society of Agronomy conference, Fort Collins, Colo.

1:15-WJJD-Baseball: Sox vs. Boston.

1:25-WIND-Baseball: Cubs vs. Boston. (Telecast on WGN-TV and WBKB.)

4:00-WBBM-Gold Cup national speed boat race, Detroit.

5:00-WMAQ-American Derby horse race, Washington Park, described by Clem McCarthy.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

12:00 noon-W-G-N-Teentimers Club, with Andy Russell, host.

1:30-WMAQ-Salute To Veterans-Ty Krum and navy band.

2:30-W-G-N-Sports Parade. Guests: Arlington Farms polo team members.

5:00-W-G-N-Take A Number, M.C.'d by Bob Shepard.

6:30-WMAQ-Curtain Time presents Buff Cobb in "Grand Slam on the Nancy B."

7:30-WMAQ-Truth or Consequences and Ralph Edwards return after vacation.

8:00-WBBM-Morry Amsterdam's comedy show, with Ginnie Powell's songs.

8:30-WBBM-It Pays To Be Ignorant: Tom Howard and his bird-brained experts.

8:30-WCFL-The Amazing Mr. Malone, starring Frank Lovejoy.

9:00-WMAQ-Dennis Day, young singer-comedian, starts a new series at a new time.

MUSIC

2:30 p.m.-WCFL-ABC symphony orchestra in the second of two U. N. broadcasts presents an all-American program, including Diamond's "Romeo and Juliet."

5:30-WMAQ-Claude Frank, pianist, makes his network debut with the NBC symphony orchestra, playing Schumann's Concerto in A Minor.

6:30-WBBM-Saturday Night Serenade by Vic Damone.

9:00-W-G-N-Theater of the Air: Miriam Stewart and Reinhold Schmidt sing in concert, and Dorothy Sand, soprano, makes her air debut. Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, will speak.