Albany to Have Amateur Contest

ALBANY — Albany merchants are sponsoring an amateur contest on the main street of the village beginning at 8:30 p. m. today. Cash awards will be given those placing first in singing, dancing, reciting and various other entertainments.

Madison's theatrical season will get an early start tonight when, at 8:15, the Parkway theater curtain goes up on "Burlesque."

Bert Lahr, stage and screen star, will have the leading role, with Rochelle Hudson of the movies in the chief supporting part.

The play was produced first back in the '20s, but in the last couple of seasons it has had successful New York and Chicago runs with Lahr in the part of "Skid," the burlesque comedian whom drink pulls back from the theatrical heights.

Lahr himself was a product of the burlesque circuits, where he went after a turn in vaudeville. Among others who climbed to the top from the burlesque stage and, like Lahr, stayed there, have been Bobby Clark and Fanny Brice.

RADIO: Phil Baker's "Everybody Wins" will be broadcast from Chicago on Sept. 10 and from Minneapolis Sept. 17.

What does a playwright do when he isn't writing plays?

BAKER

Well, some of them are busy adapting plays for radio production in the new Theater Guild series, which begins Sept. 12. For example, Leslie Reade is working on "The Winslow Boy" and "The Perfect Alibi"; Philip Lewis, "The Late George Apley" and "Camille," and John LaTouche, "June Moon."

Cecil B. DeMille will direct a series of one-hour dramatic shows on Mutual.

Bud "Superman" Collyer is the new president of the American Federation of Radio Artists.

Guy Lombardo suffered a forearm fracture in the Gold Cup speedboat races at Detroit.

Hanley Stafford and Elvia Allman, who play Mr. and Mrs. Dithers on "Blondie", may make a movie about those characters.

Marilyn Williams, daughter of the late Marion Harris, will be the singer on the ABC Abbott and Costello show starting Oct. 13.

Raymond Paige's "Musicomedy" has been extended for two weeks. The CBS show now will leave the air Friday, Sept. 24.

Patsy Campbell returned last week to the title role of "The Second Mrs. Burton" after a one-week vacation—her first in nine years.

The second second-generation Quiz Kid was born Aug. 21. The mother is 20-year-old Mrs. Margaret Merrick Scheffelin, wife of an air force officer. First child born to a former Quiz Kid was Philip Teeter, whose mother was Barbara Hutchinson.

Joan Banks is playing Jane in
