Faculty Paintings Take Another Bow

University of Wisconsin faculty paintings take another bow this month.

The Ft. Wayne gallery of Ft. Wayne, Ind., will show works by members of the university's art education department during October.

This will be the exhibit's first appearance of the year. It toured for the first time last year, when it went to Ohio university, the Milwaukee Public library, the Wustem gallery in Racine, and the Manitowoc Little gallery.

Contributors are Donald M. Anderson, Mrs. Helen W. Annen, George A. Dietrich, Robert L. Grille, Frederick Lauritzen, Fred Logan, Dean J. Meeker, Alfred Sessler, Roland S. Stebbins, Cecil J. Strawn, John H. Wilde, and Santos Zlugale.

Student Announcers Picked by WHA Chief

Names of student announcers chosen by audition last week, were announced Saturday by Cliff Roberts, chief announcer at WHA.

They are Arthur Zimmerman, Ted Mohrbacker, Bruce Kanitz, Gene Young, Herbert Miller, William Leibbrook, Doran Dieter, and Arnold Pasternack.

Pearl Anniversary for Abbotts

Bud Abbott, film and radio comedian, prepares to cut 30th wedding anniversary cake in his Encino, Calif., home as a beaming Mrs. Abbott and their two children, Victoria Rae, 6, and Bud, Jr., 9, look on.

Bill Dowd's

'Streetcar' in Chicago

Seats for the Chicago production of "A Streetcar Named Desire" are sold out two weeks ahead, and weekends are sold out for the next month, Gertrude Bromberg wrote from Chicago today.

Miss Bromberg wrote from Chicago today. Miss Bromberg is press representative of the show, which stars Madison's Uta Hagen. It's at the Harris theater.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Morton Downey, heard three nights a week on WIBA, will hit the road this month for a 10,000-mile tour. He'll sing the national anthem at the American Legion convention in Miami, then head for Chicago.

Wisconsin is well represented on ABC these mornings. J. K. M. McCaffery, of "What Makes You Tick?," is from Madison and Tommy Bartlett, of "Welcome Travelers," is an ex-Milwaukeean.

Bradley Kincaid, once the top hillbilly singer of radio, will guestar on NBC-WIBA's "Grand Ole Opry" Saturday night.

Jimmy Rurante has formed a partnership with Arthur Michaud, veteran talent agent, to operate a booking agency.

Kay Starr will star in a new ABC show beginning next Monday night. She'll have an all-girl guestar policy.

Frank Morgan is reported working on script for a children's radio show.

Ralph Edwards will have two shows a week soon. His new "This Is Your Life" will open on NBC Oct. 19.

AT CENTRAL: Central high school's band has the largest enrollment in many years—75 members, the Madison Mirror (school newspaper) reports. David March, junior, is the new drum major.

MAIL BAG: A note from Mrs. H. M.:

"As one of the mothers concerned with the 'bus situation,' I want to add my thanks to the others you must have received for your mention of courtesy on buses.

"I've really been extremely reluctant to let my daughter ride unescorted on the bus to and from school because of the undesirable situation existing. Thanks again."

To Mrs. H. M.:
And thanks to you.
