

Tonight's Radio Aces

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Report to the People (WIBA): Al Gilbert interviews Supt. Philip H. Falk of Madison public schools on effect of new pre-school population on education system.

7:30 p. m.—America's Town Meeting (WISC): "What Should We Do About Race Segregation?"; Walter White, National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People; Raymond Sprigle, Pittsburgh newsman; Hodding Carter, Mississippi editor; Gov. Prentice Cooper, Tennessee.

9 p. m.—American Forum (WGN): Sen. J. C. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), Rep. H. D. Scott (R-Pa.)

11 p. m.—You and the World (WBBM): "Television's Effect on Family Life," Mrs. Leonard Lyons.

Music

6 p. m.—Supper Club (WIBA): Jo Stafford sings rain medley, "The Best Things in Life Are Free," "Say Something Sweet."

8 p. m.—Melody Lane (WBBM): Bob-bey Breen, guest; "Buttons and Bows," "Say It Isn't So," "12th St. Rag."

KRUEGER

8:20 p. m.—Men's Hall Chorus (WHA-FM): James Jorgenson, director; Al Meulendyke, Lyle Olson, Norman W. Marty, soloists.

8:45 p. m.—Detroit Symphony (WISC): starts new season under Dr. Karl Krueger; Beethoven's seventh symphony.

10:15 p. m.—Morton Downey (WIBA): "You Say the Nicest Things," "Should I," "My Ideal," "The Wind and the Rain in Your Hair," "I'll See You in My Dreams"; Jack Smith (WBBM); and Clark sisters; "It's a Most Unusual Day," "My Darling, My Darling," "Hair of Gold," "I Dream Too Much," "The Money Song."

Variety

8:30 p. m.—Fibber McGee and Molly (WIBA): a re-upholstery job.

Drama

7 p. m.—George O'Hanlon (WGN): in new series about man perpetually behind the eight ball; cast includes Willard Waterman... Mystery Theater (WBBM): wealthy man introduces bride-to-be to children, then meets death.

7:30 p. m.—A Date With Judy (WIBA): romance almost ends... Mr. and Mrs. North (WBBM):

RALPH EDWARDS
WIBA at 7

Pam serves on a jury, does more than her duty.

8:30 p. m.—Life With Luigi (WBBM): the mysteries of classified advertising.

8 p. m.—Big Town (WIBA): payroll robbery starts "The Fatal Chain."

Sports

10:15 p. m.—Joe Hasel (WISC): and Coach Buck Shaw of '49ers.

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—This Is Your Life (WIBA): Ralph Edwards begins new type of series, reviewing life histories of typical Americans and interviewing them and their friends.

10:30 p. m.—Bob Elson (WENR): interviews Betty Smith, others.

Wednesdaytime

9 a. m.—Fred Waring (WIBA): salutes marine corps anniversary; "Marine Hymn."

9:15 a. m.—Nursery School (WHA): "Princess on the Glass Hill."

9:30 a. m.—Exploring Science (WHA): "Camera Obscura."

10 a. m.—Homemakers (WHA): "Packaged Short Cuts to Baking," Mrs. Helen Young; "Good Nutrition in Every Day Foods," Mrs. May Reyonlds.

10:30 a. m.—League of Women Voters (WHA): "Segregation of Highway Funds," Wayne Anderson.

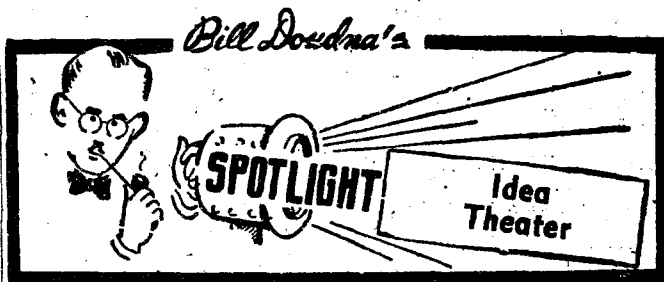

11:15 a. m.—It's Your Life (WMAQ): "Dental Care."

12:30 p. m.—Farm Program (WHA): "What Rural Youth Groups Are Doing," Bruce Carter; "What Nitrogen Can Do for Pastures," C. J. Chapman.

1 p. m.—Second Mrs. Burton (WBBM): with Mrs. Ruby Griffith, handicraft expert, on Christmas gift making.

5 p. m.—A Look at Australia (WHA-FM): "Season in Reverse."

5:30 p. m.—Herb Shriner (WBBM): with Abe Burrow.

The Wisconsin Idea theater has another new idea. This time it's a touring company.

With a cast of campus and Madison area players, the organization plans to send a play on weekend trips to Wisconsin cities. The production will be "Wisconsin Show Time," a revue-style show based on Badger stories and including sketches, dances, and songs, tied together with narration.

The revue was written by Prof. Robert Gard, director of the theater, and Edward Kamarck. It will be directed by Martha Van Kleeck.

Tryouts will be held Monday, Nov. 22, after a reading of the script. They will be in the Rosewood room of the Memorial Union, and Gard and Miss Van Kleeck have invited anybody interested in the work to try out.

Under present plans, the troupe will go to cities close to Madison, so it can return after the performance. There may be some exceptions, however.

nical run-through" of the show that is, the members will see how the staw crew manages to make 28 scene changes. The play will open Friday night at West and move to East for a showing Saturday night.

ORCHESTRA: Among the 92 members of the University of Wisconsin Symphony orchestra who will play Sunday, Nov. 21, in the Wisconsin Union theater are 20 Madison students. They are:

Elaine Brown, Jane Erickson, Robert Hornsath, Reuben Postler, and Edwin Smythe, violin; Hartman Axley, Edwin Hicks and Ann Winger, viola; David Pownall and Eugene Schweitzer, cello; Carl Dietzman and Rodney Gibson, bass.

Earl Gates and William Kaplan, clarinet; Barbara Hampton and Patricia Pienstorff, flute; John Heis and Robert Williams, horn; Donald Kirkpatrick, bassoon, and Mary Lacey, harp.

QUOTATION MARKS: "In some cities, I notice that the authorities have banned comic books on the grounds that they're a bad influence. I guess they figure a kid has no business learning about crime until he's old enough to go to the movies."—Herb Shriner.

Worth Asking For -

OLYMPIC

The Brandy That Satisfies

FRUIT INDUSTRIES, LTD. SAN FRANCISCO

Distributed by DISTILLERS DISTRIBUTORS, INC., Madison, Wis.

WARNER BROS. MAJESTIC

Last Day! "JULIA MISBEHAVES"