Three members of the Madison Council of Parents and Teachers today added their praise to that of this department for "The Secret Land," documentary film now showing at the Madison theater.

They were Mrs. E. K. Steul, president; Mrs. Albert S. Lerdahl, visual education chairman, and Mrs. Leo J. Merkel, movie chairman.

"As members of the PTA city council, we reviewed 'The Secret Land,' they said, "and wholeheartedly recommend it to everyone, especially to parents and children of the intermediate and high school age.

"This excellent dramatic documentary film of the navy's recent 'Operation Highjump' is an official account of the Byrd expedition to Antarctica in 1946-47. It depicts months of planning and training, heroic rescues of ship and men, the courage and daring of our men and their great leader, Admiral Byrd, and the valuable discoveries of the expedition.

"It is a real tribute to our navy, marine corps, coast guard, and army cameramen."

MISCELLANY: Dance band fans can put another date on their calendars. Art Mooney and his orchestra will be at the Capitol theater Wednesday, Dec. 1.

Gunnar Johansen, pianist, has begun a new radio series. He's playing works of Chopin at 3:20 p. m. Fridays on WHA and at 8:05 p. m. Fridays on WHA-FM.

The Wisconsin Idea theater's "Wisconsin Showtime," which it plans to take on tour, will make its campus bow Feb. 2. After that, the play will go to 12 other Wisconsin cities. University of Wisconsin students interested in appearing in the play have been invited to attend tryouts Nov. 22 in the Rosewood room of the Memorial Union.

he's donating Dennis Morgan for a day, has him prepared to give a duplicate prize in case of a tie. The duplicate, of course, will be Carson for a day.

The only radio commentator known to have made the advance prediction that Truman would win the election was Pasadena's Dan Landberg, ex-CBS foreign correspondent now with KKLA. He called it on Nov. 1.

MILKMAN WAITED

QUINCY, Mass.—(U.P)—An unpaid milk bill dated July, 1914, was turned up by Mrs. E. Victor Bigelow during an attic cleaning. Her check to the milk dealer, dead several years, was forwarded to his daughter who returned it with a note saying that Mrs. Bigelow had restored her faith in
