

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

5:30-KFI—Howard Barlow will direct the orchestra tonight in a new Cole Porter number, while special guest Lily Pons features a Victor Herbert number, during the "Voice of Firestone" show.

6:00-KNX—"The Mating of Mille," a love story of Mille McGonigle, an efficiency-minded department store executive, is presented on "Radio Theater." In starring roles are Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes.

7:30-KECA—The latest composition of Basil (Buzz) Adam, ABC Hollywood director of music and orchestra leader, will be featured on "Starring Kay Starr."

8:00-KHJ—"Murder and One to Go" is the title of the mystery drama to be presented tonight on the "Let George Do It" program.

8:00-KECA—Eddie Cantor will be starred in a radio revival of "Whoopee," one of his most successful stage and screen musical comedies, when he visits Gordon MacRae and the "Railroad Hour."

8:30-KNX—Arthur Godfrey presents tonight two baritones and a girl violinist on his "Talent Scouts" show.

8:30-KFI—John Lund, film star, will play the role of a young pioneer of more than 100 years ago in "Gift of Johnny Applesed," on "Cavalcade of America."