

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00—KNN—In response to thousands of requests from listeners, this time with Ethel Barrymore and Gena Kelly costarred, Mel Dinelli's eerie drama, "To Find Help," is to be repeated on the "suspense" program.

8:30—KFI—Ed Gardner, manager of "Duffy's Tavern," and film star Basil Rathbone will be Dorothy Lamour's guests tonight on her show. "Archie" has some gags cooked up for Dottie tonight that may be interesting.

. . . . .

7:00—KFI—Here is a story concerning a U. S. government agent and a girl who willingly becomes the pawn to assist him in trapping a group of Nazi undercover agents in Rio de Janeiro. The drama is "Notorious," as given to you by "Screen Guild Players."

. . . . .

7:30—KNX—The "First Nighter" show will go back 100 years to the California gold rush of 1849 for the locale of the drama to be presented tonight.

. . . . .

8:30—KHJ—Virginia Bruce will reveal some of the interesting and absorbing anecdotes in her past life which turned out to be milestones in her career, when she gueststars on "Hollywood Story."

. . . . .

9:00—KFI—Guestarring on tonight's program, screen star Gregory Peck will discover that his duel in the sun was a snap compared to a bout with George Burns and Gracie Allen. The quiet—though dim-witted Gracie is all set to welcome the dashing hero.