

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

5:30-KFI—The first public performance of Elizabeth Firestone's new musical composition will be the highlight of tonight's "Voice of Firestone." This talented composer will play her own work accompanied by the orchestra.

6:00-KNX—Portraying their original screen roles Rosalind Russell and Sidney Greenstreet will give us that play within a play "The Velvet Touch" on "Lux Radio Theater."

8:00-KECA—Gene Kelley and Lucielle Norman relate in song the humorous adventures of the principals in Victor Herbert's beloved "Red Mill." This is a pleasant revival by the Railroad Hour.

8:30-KHJ—Dr. Watson needs all his powers and wits to save his own throat when "The Knife of Vengeance" descends in tonight's Sherlock Holmes thriller.

9:00-KECA—"The Berlin Story" is the long awaited timely document portraying the situation in Germany and based on the thesis that the key of peace or war is a Rhur-Berlin axis.
