

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

6:00-KNX-Ingrid Bergman tonight stars as "Anna Christie," a woman whose bitterness toward the world changes to a feeling of unworthiness when she falls in love, on the "Ford Theatre."

7:00-KECA - Heavyweights occupy the flistic spotlight this week when the Cavalcade of Sports airs a blow-by-blow description of the 10-rounder between Gene Gosney of Oklahoma and Bernie Reynolds of Connecticut. The bout is held in New York.

7:00-KHJ-Owen Davis' Pulitzer prize-winning play, "Icebound," starring Cornel Wilde in the role of a young New Englander who almost ruins his happy life by permitting past grievances to remain frozen in his heart, will be presented on "Great Scenes From Great Plays."

7:00-KNX-Comedian Eddle Bracken becomes quite serious in the drama, "The Search for Isabel," as he stars for the "Playhouse."

7:30-KFI-Horace Heidt, whose first ambition was to be an athletic coach, will be the guest in the spotlight tonight on Bill Stern's "Sports Newreel." Heidt will speak by remote pick-up.

8:30-KECA-This week's story as told on the "This Is Your FBI" program, show how roadhouses can be the breeding place for gangs, and thieves . . . even murderers. The story concerns jewel robbery.

8:30-KFI-Here he is . . . the man with the heart of gold . . . and really a great guy . . . Jimmy Durante.

9:00-KECA-$2500 in the jackpot of "Break the Bank" tonight.

SPECIAL TOMORROW—

11:00 a. m.-KECA-The Metropolitan Opera Co. presents Verdi's "La Traviata."