

Listeners' Choice

VARIETY, COMEDY. AND DRAMA

11:30 a.m.—WCFL—Abbott and Costello Kid Show: Children's program with songs by Anna Mae Slaughter.

1:00 p.m.—W-G-N—Teens and Tunes—Salute to Proviso Township High School.

7:00—W-G-N—Twenty Questions: Edward Everett Horton joins regular panel.

7:00—WMAQ—Hollywood Star Theater: Merle Oberon introduces a) newcomer, Wally Cassell.

8:00—W-G-N—Life Begins at 80: Jack Barry, moderator, and octogenarians give their views on life.

8:00—WBBM—Gangbusters: The "Case of the Two Time Bank Robbers."

8:30—WBBM—Tales of Fatima: Basil Rathbone with some of his true adventures.

8:30—WMAQ—Judy Canova, with Mel Blanc and Joseph Kearns.

9:00—WMAQ—Dennis Day Show with George Dunning's orchestra.

MUSIC

1:00 p.m.—WLS—Metropolitan Opera presents Verdi's "La Traviata" starring Bidu Sayao, Brazilian soprano, and Giuseppe di Stefano, tenor.

2:00—WMAQ—Orchestras of the Nation. St. Louis Symphony orchestra.

2:00—W-G-N—Symphonies For Youth, with Los Angeles Philharmonic, directed by Alfred Wallenstein.

3:30—W-G-N—Choral Program: New series with University of Southern California chorus.

5:00—W-G-N—Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra.

5:30—WMAQ—NBC Symphony, with Guido Cantelli conducting.

6:30—WBBM—Caravan: Vaughn Monroe broadcasts from Birmingham, Ala.

7:00—WBBM—Gene Autry show broadcast from Kansas City, Mo.

8:00—WMAQ—Your Hit Parade, with Frank Sinatra.

9:00—W-G-N, WGNB—Chicago Theater of the Air: Verdi's "Aida," with Camilla Williams, Robert Marshall, Ruth Slater, and Bruce Foote. Jack LaFrandre directing, and Henry Weber conducting the orchestra. Robert Trendler directs the chorus. Speaker: Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

10:15—WCFL—Music Lovers Hour: Beethoven and Mendelssohn works.