

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:00 Noon—KRX—The world premiere of the "Pilgrim's Hymn," by Otto Luening, will be performed by the N. Y. Philharmonic Symphony, directed by Leopold Stokowski today.

3:30 — KRX — Alec Templeton visits Spike Jones today, and the two musicians cook up a zany production number based on the immortal "1812 Prelude," by Tschaiskowsky, and call it "Chaika and Spike."

4:00—KRX—Antics in a dentist's office high light the Jack Benny show.

4:00—KFI—The 9-year-old marimba player will again compete against the "field" in order to hold his top rating on the Horace Heidt show, which will be broadcast again at 7:30 tonight.

5:00—KFI—Arm in arm, Jack Haley and Fred Allen stroll down "Main Street" for the customary encounters met there. As you have probably guessed, Haley is Allen's guest today.

6:30—KPCA—Rex Harrison will be starred in "Journey's End," one of the most popular war dramas of the '20s, when it is presented by "Theater Guild."

8:00—KHJ—Funnyman Edward Everett Horton will tonight play the parlor game of "Animal, Vegetable or Mineral" during "20 Questions."

8:00—KFI—A real down to earth family situation comedy program, with Ozzie and Harriet in real life married, and the children heard on the show . . . really their own, not actors. It's Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Nelson and their two sons, Ricky and David. In "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet," scripted by Ozzie himself.

8:30 — KFI — William Steinberg conducts the San Francisco Symphony on this hour-long musical show.

11:00 — KHJ — Talk. Harold L. Ickes, former Secretary of the Interior.