

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

6:00-KNX-A role, quite unlike the usual for Edward G. Robinson, will be played by the star tonight when he plays the role of a sensitive milequetoast, in the Ford Theatre presentation of "Woman In the Window."

7:00-KHJ-The story of parents who sacrificed their own ambitions and pleasures in order to give their children all of the world's advantages, will be heard in the unusual drama, "The Goose Hangs High," with Walter Abel in the starring role during "Great Scenes."

7:00-KECA-Ike Williams, world's lightweight champion, and the hard-hitting Cuban welterweight, Kid Gavilan, meet in a 10-round non-title bout as the feature of the week's "Cavalcade of Sports."

7:30-KNX-Percy Faith assumes the dual role of conductor and composer when he leads the orchestra in his own lively composition, "Perpetual Notion." Vocalovely, Jane Froman sings.

8:00-KHJ-Listening in on the telephone conversations of others can be as dangerous as it is interesting, as Greg Hood learns when he is accidentally plugged into a call between two hijackers.

9:00-KECA-Wm. E. Reinhold, from Portland, Maine, was at the $10 mark last week when time ran out on the "Break the Bank" show. He will return this week to continue trying for the $3500 prize.

SPECIAL TOMORROW

11:00 a. m.-KECA-With Helen Traubel, soprano, in the role of Brunhilde, Richard Wagner's stirring "Die Walkuere" will be presented on the broadcast of the Metropolitan Opera Co.

3:30 p. m.-KFI-Guido Cantelli, guest conductor of the NBC Symphony Orchestra will turn to the music of Wagner and Bartok for the concert presentation this afternoon.