

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

10:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "Do Co-Operatives Endanger Other Business?" Speakers: Paul L. Courtney, National Tax Equality association, and Jerry Vgorhis, Co-Operative League of the United States.

12:30 p. m.—WMAQ—University of Chicago Round Table: "What Should Be Done About The Federal Budget?" Participants: Sen. Taft (R., O.), Roy Blough, and J. Kenneth Galbraith.

10:00—WCFL—Blackhawks vs. Toronto Maple Leafs,

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

1:45 p. m.—W-G-N—Career Girl. Myron Wallace interviews Dina Halpern, star of "Anna Lucasta."

2:30—WMAQ—One Man's Family, drama.

3:00—WMAQ—Quiz Kids, with Joe Kelly as master of ceremonies.

3:35—WMAQ—Living, 1949. "State of American Humor," starring Fred Allen.

4:00—WMAQ—Jane Pickens show.

5:00—W-G-N—Roy Rogers show with Dale Evans.

5:30—WENR—Greatest Story Ever Told rebroadcasts the first show of this series, "The Good Samaritan."

6:00—WBBM—Jack Benny, with Mary Livingstone, Dennis Day, and Rochester.

6:00—WMAQ—Horace Heidt and young amateurs, from Charlotte, N. C.

6:30—W-G-N—Mayor of the Town with Lionel Barrymore.

6:30—WBBM—Amos and Andy.

7:00—WMAQ—Fred Allen, with guest Rudy Vallee.

7:30—W-G-N—Smoke Rings, with Vocalists Skip Farrell and Brookes Randall, and Robert Trendler and the orchestra.

7:30—WMAQ—NBC Theater presents "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," with Robert Montgomery.

8:00—WBBM—"The Enemy" starring Helen Hayes.

8:30—W-G-N—Jimmy Fidler announces the name of the $33,000 grand prize winner of the eight week contest to select a slogan for the National Kids' Day Foundation.

8:30—WLS—Theater Guild presents Irene Dunne and Thomas Mitchell in "The Late Christopher Bean."

9:00—W-G-N—Stars of Tomorrow, amateur show with Lee Bennett m. c. Also broadcast on WGN-TV.

9:00—WMAQ—Take It or Leave It, with Garry Moore.

9:30—WMAQ—Who Said That, news quiz.

MUSIC

1:00 p. m.—WMAQ—First Piano Quartet.

1:00—W-G-N—Mutual Opera concert. New series of concert music. featuring Sylvan Levin on the podium.

4:30—WMAQ—Boston Pops orchestra and Robert Merrill.

5:30—WBBM—Spike Jones. Guests. Basil Rathbone and Lina Romay.