

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

7:30 p. m.-WENR-America's Town Meeting: "Do We Need a New Approach to Peace?" Speakers: Dorothy Thompson, author; Cord Meyer Jr., president of United World Federalists; Richard Lauterbach, and David Owen of the United Nations.

VARIETY, COMEDY AND DRAMA

6:30 p. m.-WLS-Counterspy: "The Case of the Motorized Marauders."

7:00-WBBM-Mystery Theater: "The Case of the $100,000 Reward for One Man's Murder."

7:30-W-G-N-WGNB-Official Detective: Crime episode from police files.

7:30-WMAQ-Alan Young show, with Jim Backus, and Louise Erickson.

7:30-WBBM-Mr. and Mrs. North have trouble with a birthday gift.

8:00-WMAQ-Bob Hope show, with Doris Day and Billy Farrell.

8:30-WMAQ-Fibber McGee and Molly, with Arthur Q. Bryan.

9:00-WMAQ-Big Town, with Edward Pawley and Fran Carlton.

9:30-WMAQ-People Are Funny, with Art Linkletter, m. c.

MUSIC

8:00 p. m.-WBBM-Melody Lane, June Marlowe, program hostess, with Harmonicats as guests; also Caesar Petrillo and his orchestra, and Louise King and Billy Leach, singers.

8:45-WENR-Detroit Symphony plays selections from Wagner, Brahms, and Miller.

9:30-W-G-N-WGNB-The Northerners: Special University of Wisconsin program with Ruth Kienholz, student, as soloist.

10:00-WMAQ-Supper Club featuring Jo Stafford, with the Starlighters.

10:15-WENR-Date After Ten, with Skip Farrell and Brookes Randall.