

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:00 Noon-KNX-Bernard Herrmann's suite from "The Devil and Daniel Webster" is performed by the New York Philharmonic-Symphony under the direction of Leopold Stokowski during this hour-and-a-half musical broadcast.

3:00-KECA-How a man first sank to the lowest depths of despair and then rose to heights beyond his wildest dreams—the Presidency of the United States—is the theme of the drama "The Little Big Man" on "California Caravan."

3:30-KNX-Tony Martin and his wife, the lovely Cyd Charisse, take a chance and call on Spike Jones, "Doodles" Weaver and the gang today.

4:00-KFI-Willard Bolchoz, 18-year-old trumpeter who won the Horace Heidt competition last week, continues the streak of very youthful winners. Two most recent titleholders were 9-year-olds. Repeat broadcast at 7:30 p. m.

4:00 KNX-With a birthday coming up on the 14th, will Jack Benny still be able to convince his "gang" he is still 39 years old . . . or now will he have to change?

6:00-KHJ-Here is a show that shows a good deal of rehearsal, production and careful presentation. With a good story, this show is a "cracker-jack"! It's "Under Arrest," with the story title of "Triple Threat."

6:30-KECA-Walter Huston will be starred in "Ah, Wilderness," Eugene O'Neill's tender comedy, when it is presented by the "Theater Guild."

8:30-KFI-Dim the lights . . . sit back . . . relax . . . and listen to the Standard Hour.
