

Highlights of Today's Radio Broadcasts, Classified

Religion

9 a. m.—National Radio Pulpit (WMAQ): Dr. R. J. McCracken, New York, on "Self-Pity — Its Cause and Cure" . . . Church of the Air (WBBM): Rev. E. V. Cardinal, Chicago, on "The Leprosy of Hatred" . . . Message of Israel (WISC): Rabbi Irving Miller, Woodmere, N. Y., on "Is Brotherhood Week an Illusion?"

10:30 a. m.—Hour of Faith (WISC): the Rev. Vincent Holden, New York on "Old, Yet Ever New."

11:30 a. m.—Ave Maria Hour (WISC): "St. Ladislas."

2:30 p. m.—National Vespers (WENR): Dr. J. S. Bonnell, New York, on "Can a Man Really Know God?"

Discussion

10:15 a. m.—Newsmakers (WBBM): sketch of Gen. D. D. Eisenhower.

10:30 a. m.—Reviewing Stand (WKOW): "Our Housing Problem — Building;" Sen. A. J. Ellender (D-La.), representatives of builders, labor, tenants.

12 m.—America United (WMAQ): "Should Farm Price Supports Be Flexible?"; Rep. H. D. Cooley (D-N. C.), representatives of industry, agriculture.

12:30 p. m.—Chicago Round Table (WMAQ): "What Do We Know About Economic Stability?"; Prof. Roy Blough, Milton Friedman.

2 p. m.—Encore (WHA): "At the Crossroads of American Foreign Policy," Rep. Walter Judd (R-Minn.).

MOORE . . . FIELDS

Drama

10 a. m.—Destination Freedom (WMAQ): story of Dr. R. J. Bunche's selection as Palestine mediator.

11:30 a. m.—Eternal Light (WMAQ): "Gandhi," with Leon Janney.

1:30 p. m.—University Theater (WIBA): "Pride and Prejudice," with Angela Lansbury . . . You Are There (WBBM): "The Plot to Kill Savonarola."

5 p. m.—Family Hour (WBBM): Bette Davis, Ray Milland in "Three Hours," tale of a thieving beauty

5:30 p. m.—Greatest Story (WENR): innocently convicted, man prevents reprisal execution.

6:30 p. m.—Mayor of the Town (WKOW): "The Horse With the Beautiful Hair."

7:30 p. m.—NBC Theater (WIBA): Ronald Colman, Benita Hume in "The Prisoner of Zenda."

8 p. m.—Helen Hayes (WBBM): in "The Recluse," story of aged woman found dying in lonely house.

8:30 p. m.—Theater Guild (WISC): Deborah Kerr in "Mary of Scotland."

9:30 p. m.—"The Word" (WMAQ, WGN): opening American Brotherhood Week.

10:30 p. m.—Neither Fred Nor Equal" (WBBM): for better human relations; Nelson Rockefeller, speaker.

Documentary

11:30 a. m.—"Mind in the Shadow" (WBBM): rebroadcast of drama about mental health needs

3:35 p. m.—Living — 1949 (WIBA): progress report to George Washington.

Music

10 a. m.—Fine Arts Quartet (WISC): "Quartet in D Major," Mozart.

1 p. m.—Voices Down the Wind (WIBA): "Malaguena," "O Dry

LANSBURY . . . KAPPELL

COLMAN . . . DAVIS

Those Tears," "Ma Curly Headed Baby," "Chloe" . . . Opera Concert (WGN): Marilyn Cotlow, Leslie Chabaz; music from "Lucia," "Jewels of the Madonna" (on WKOW at 9 p. m.) . . . Festival of Music (WIBA): "Hora Staccato," "Mlle. Modiste" selections, "Stars and Stripes Forever."

2 p. m.—N. Y. Philharmonic-Symphony (WBBM): William Kapell, pianist; Leopold Stokowski, conductor; "Piano Concerto No. 3," Prokofieff; prelude from "Partita in E Major," Bach; "Romanian Rhapsody No. 1," Enesco; "Imperial" symphony, Haydn . . . Piano Playhouse (WISC): Grace Castagnetta, Evelyn Tyner, guests.

3:30 p. m.—Madison Civic Symphony (WHA): concert at Masonic auditorium . . . Opera Auditions (WENR): Ross der Derian,

Detroit soprano; Denis Harbour, Canadian bass-heritone.

4 p. m.—Festival of Song (WBBM): "One Alone," "Holiday for Strings," "Winter Song."

4:30 p. m.—Robert Merrill (WIBA): and Boston "Pops"; "Stouthearted Men," "Torna a Soriento," "Wanting You," "Norwegian Dance No. 2," Grieg.

8 p. m.—Merry-Go-Round (WIBA): "Say It Isn't So," "Lavender Blue," "Sunflower," "Here I'll Stay" . . . Claire Richards (WHA-FM): piano recital in Music hall . . . Classical Hour (WKOW): including interview with Abram Leon Sachar, author.

8:30 p. m.—Familiar Music (WIBA): "I Dream Too Much," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Goin' Home."

Variety

5:30 p. m.—Spike Jones (WBBM): with Monica Lewis, Alec Templeton.

3 p. m.—Fred Allen (WIBA): and Gracie Fields.

Quiz

9 p. m.—Take It Or Leave It (WIBA): Garry Moore in Wiesbaden, Germany.

9:30 p. m.—Who Said That? (WIBA): Hank Greenberg, John Lardner, Morgan Beatty, guests.

Miscellaneous

12:30 p. m.—Serenade (WISC): new series with music, West side news.