

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

6:00-KNX—"Apartment for Peggy." starring Jeanne Crain, William Holden and Edmund Gwynne in their original screen roles, is the presentation of "Radio Theater."

6:30-KECA-This marks the opening of the 1949 Red Cross campaign. The program includes an address by General Eisenhower and a dramatic sketch starring Helen Hays. President Truman will speak during the last five minutes of the broadcast. This portion will also be carried by KNX, KFI AND KHJ.

7:00-KHJ-The subject of a federal health insurance plan will be debated by Dr. Louis Bauer of the American Medical Association and Rep. Andrew Biemiller on tonight's "American Forum."

8:00-KECA-The Railroad Hour. Marina Koshetz and Melva Niles join Gordon MacRae in the "Song of Norway," the musical story of the life of its composer, Edward Grieg. Miss Niles, a native Californian, appeared in the Broadway production.

8:30-KNX-Two vocalists, an accordionist and a comedian will compete for top honors on "Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts."

9:30-KFI-The story that won an award for the Los Angeles reporter Joseph Salanda is tonight's "Big Story." All through her trial Salanda had faith in the faith in the "girl without a chance," and his hunch paid off.