

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KFI-A Jolson will have two guests who will range from the sublime to the ridiculous tonight. Lovely Dorothy Kirsten, favorite of opera lovers, and "Southerner" Phil Harris. Phil is still looking for a job for Frankie Remley and will probably try to persuade Al to hire the young man.

6:30-KECA-Jo Stafford introduces a new song, "I'll String Along With You," and then will give the clues for the year in which the "Isle of Capri" was the hit tune.

7:00-KFI-Clark Gable makes one of his rare radio appearances when he heads the all-star cast of "Command Decision" on "Screen Guild Players." In addition, all the stars appearing in the motion picture will have their original roles. During the broadcast, Sidney Franklin, producer, will receive the Redbook award for his contribution to the art of the motion picture.

8:30-KECA-Comedienne Gracie Fields, Paul Muni, actor, and Carlos Salvedos, harpist, will display their respective talents on tonight's "Theater U. S. A."

8:30-KHJ-"The Mysterious Traveler" will visit the "Murder at Mardi Gras" in colorful New Orleans tonight.

9:00-KNX-Federal agents find an interesting human interest story when they investigate the sale of stolen cars by "Honest John," a respected used car dealer, on "FBI in Peace and War."