TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-“Red River,” the exciting story of the first cattle drive along the historic Chisholm Trail, is the adaptation selected by “Lux Radio Theater” for tonight. Playing their original screen roles, John Wayne and Joanne Dru show the stalwart character and brave daring that is true to the western tradition.

7:30-KECA-The man who has been most instrumental in “Starring Kay Starr” will be her guest tonight. He is Joe Venuti, who discovered her 10 years ago and started her on the road to fame.

8:30-KFI-In line with the heightened interest in the care of the mentally ill, “Cavalcade of America” brings a reminder of the origin of such interest. Jean Arthur will portray that crusading figure, Dorothea Dix, who more than a century ago made the initial investigations into the mental conditions of that time. This dramatic feature is titled “Journey Among the Lost.”

9:00-KNX-With Paul McGrath as your host at the “creakin’ door,” “Inner Sanctum” presents “Murder by Coincidence,” with Everett Sloane in the lead role.

10:30-KHJ-Prime Minister David Ben Gurion gives the first official report from the newly created Israel state. This is in conjunction with the Jewish National Fund of America.
