

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:30-KFI-Dom Wilson will receive the award of favorite announcer, as chosen by Radio Mirror magazine in their annual poll, on the Alan Young show.

7:00-KHJ-One of the strangest and most dangerous missions of World War II, the theft of heavy-water from Nazi-occupied factories, will be revealed during "Secret Missions" tonight. Adm. Zacharias will narrate the dramatization.

7:00-KECA-When a brilliant lawyer tries to pick up some easy money by pretending to be an agent of the Income Tax Bureau, David Harding is called in to break up the racket in "The Case of the Mysterious Phone Calls," tonight's episode of "Counterspy."

8:30-KFI-Events in the life of one of the world's most illustrious women, the daughter of a slave, will be revealed through "This Is Your Life."

8:30-KNX-Trouble for "Mr. and Mrs. North" . . . who killed their accountant and now how are they going to figure their income tax without him?