

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00—KFI—Thrift makes an unaccustomed entrance at "Duffy's Tavern" when Archie joins the Christmas club at the bank. His righteousness soon fades and temptation sets in as he watches the hangers-on "Eddie" and "Miss Duffy" squander their surplus in such questionable pursuits as playing the races and buying sidewalk jewelry.

6:30—KHJ—Appropriate to St. Patrick's Day eve Edmund Gwenn narrates the story of the "Leprechaun Who Didn't Listen." Little Johnny is anxious to explore the Enchanted Forest but difficulties ensue when curiosity gets the better of him.

7:00—KNX—Lud Gluskin will replace his baton with a shillelagh when he leads the orchestra of "Hollywood Music Hall." Jimmy Nolan, Lucille Norman's guest, will join in the Irish mood with his rendition of "In the Garden Where the Praties Grow."

8:30—KECA—One of the teams of contestants on Groucho Marx "You Bet Your Life" will be an Irish bachelor and an Irish spinster. Will their Irish luck hold in the quest for the $1000 jackpot?

9:00—KECA—It's a jam session on Crosby's "Radio Time" tonight. Top-ranking instrumentalists including Louie Armstrong, Mr. Jazz in Person, Jack Teagarden, Buddy Cole, Red Nichols and several others will join in the banter center when they dig into their pasts to excavate the reminiscences dealing with the early days of hot music.

9:30 — KFI — Slow death for aliens within sight of freedom is the tragic pay off in human smuggling told in "The Case of Send the Homeless" in which "Mr. D. A." investigates a diabolical plot and puts an end to this mass murder scheme.