

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KFI—Faced with the expense of transporting his radio troupe, Eddie Cantor saves the day when he wins the jackpot on a quiz show, and all his troubles disappear — he believes.

7:00-KECA—The nontitle 10-round match between Ike Williams, lightweight champion, and Kid Gavilan of Cuba, each of whom holds a decision over the other, will be described from Madison Square Garden tonight.

7:00-KNX—Hal Peary (Gildersleeve) takes a different role tonight when he stars in "Letter of Condolence," the story of a man who survives the crash of his plane.

8:30-KHJ—Ray Milland will be the guest star interviewed by Shellah Graham on "Yours for a Song" while Buddy Clark shares the vocal portion of the show with Betty Rhodes.

TOMORROW

11:00-KECA — To conclude the Metropolitan Opera broadcast season, Verdi's "Rigoletto" will be presented with the title role sung by Leonard Warren. Patricia Musell will be heard in the part of "Gilda," and Jan Peerce will sing the "Duke of Mantua."

2:00-KNX — Works of Rimsky-Korsakoff and Wagner are on the program of the Philadelphia Orchestra, conducted by Eugene Ormandy.

3:30-KFI — Arturo Toscanini will direct the NBC Symphony in his second all-Beethoven concert of the season.