

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KNX—"Does a young man's fancy really turn to thoughts of love in the spring?" "County Fair" bats this one out with their guinea pigs tonight.

6:30-KHJ—"For the Love of Angel" if you know a cow by the same name, don't eat steak. That's Jack Haley's theory on tonight's "Family Theatre."

7:00-KFI—Nancy Manry, pianist, and Max Mendenhall, tenor, will be featured on the "Hollywood Bowl Auditions."

7:30-KFOX—Hal's Memory Room is always close to the hearts of the listeners.

9:00-KECA—Ethel Merman makes a special trip to the coast to sing with Bing on his program tonight. She will join him in a new "Flop Parade," a parody on that other popular parade.

9:30-KFI — When an ex-convict falls in love with a married woman there is trouble ahead in "The Case of the Bar of Soap" . . . but "Mr. District Attorney" washes this one out.