TONIGHT

6:00-KNX—Pat O'Brien stars in "Dead Ernest" . . . Ernest is struck by an automobile and taken to the morgue . . . his bracelet, bearing the inscription "Do not embalm me, I am not DEAD," is lost. What happens?

7:00-KHJ—Mike "The Falcon" finds that someone is bound to get his wings clipped when crooks fly in an airplane during the dramatization of "Murder Flies by Night."

7:30-KFI—A tribute will be paid to Sergei Rachmaninoff by Fred Waring on his program tonight. The glee club and soloists will offer a varied selection of his works.

8:00-KECA—Special Tonight . . . The annual Academy Award ceremonies will be broadcast here and abroad to every place where American soldiers are stationed. With Robert Montgomery as master of ceremonies, the historic Oscar rites will start at 8 o'clock and continue to completion. The pre-award proceedings in the lobby will be reported by KFWB at 7:15.

9:00-KFI—Jane Wyman discovers that her role in Johnny Belinda was a cinch compared to a half-hour with Gracie Allen. She is in a dither about the possibility of winning an Oscar, but will hardly be able to accept it when Gracie finishes her "comforting" routine.

11:00-KECA—This is the second in a series of Lenten music arranged and conducted by Robert Shaw featuring the Collegiate Choir and the ABC chamber music orchestra. This marks the first radio performance of Stravinsky's "Mass."
