DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

7:00-MFI—Chester Riley appoints himself campaign manager for his daughter when she runs for presidency of the freshman class in "The Life of Riley". he proves to be more of a liability than an easet to her.

proves to be more of a liability than an asset to her. 7:00-EECA—R o bert Villemain, French middleweight, who impreased ring experts with his ability, will meet Jake Lamotta, veteran fighter, in a 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

7:39-ENK — When a heavily insured man threatens to commit suicide. "Yours Truly, Johnay Dollar" is hired to give him a new interest in life and consequently disinterests a gambler in plotting the death of his client.

plotting the death of his client.

$180-KMF_Ida Lupino will be interviewed by Shellah Graham while Betty Rhodes and an unnamed male vocalist will share the singing part of "Tours for $ Song."

$160-KECA.—Two young actresses will start the weekly run on "Break the Bank." They were than $20 mark when that time

"Mream the Eank." They were at the 800 mark when their time ran out last week. Wishbowl contestants from La Grange, Ga., will match wits for the $5200 bank.

Lix decides to give George the "yee" treatment, figuring this will make her queen of the household, but her plans are reversed when he mistakes her decidity for humility.

TOMORROW

2:64-ENX.—The Philadelphia Orcheatra, under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, plays the "Overture to Leonore, No. 2" of Becthoven and Cesar Franck's "Symphony in D Minor."

3:164-KFI — Arturo Tomanin with conclude the winter concert seaphony is D sinor. Toscanini will conclude the winter concert season of his orchestra with the presentation of the opera "Aida" by Verdi. The first two acts will be aired today and the final two on April 2.