TONIGHT

7:00-KNX-KECA—More than 76,000 churches will unite in a demonstration, entitled "One Great Hour," to bring relief to the world's suffering people. Robert Montgomery, Gregory Peck and Ida Lupino will star in three episodes of life today in Europe, Asia and America which depict the need for relief all over the world. President Truman will urge the American people to make a special effort to attend their churches in a corporate act of worship. KFIJ will carry this program at 10 p. m.

8:00-KHJ—A special broadcast appropriately called "Haven of Hope" is the story of the rehabilitation of a tuberculosis patient who regains faith and hope in a modern hospital.

8:30-KFI—Has the pie arrived? "Truth or Consequences" has sent one on its way, via the hitchhike route. When it reaches its destination, it is to launch a new bakery in the east.

9:00-KNX—Spike Jones has suggested "Beauty and the Beast" as a fitting title for the guest appearance of lovely Madeleine Carroll.

9:30-KFI—Gregory Peck will introduce Nancy Gates on "Hollywood Star Theater."
