

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:00-KNX—Leopold Stokowski returns to the Philharmonic for the first of two concerts.

3:30-KECA—“That Which Is Gone Astray” is the drama drawn from the Bible on “The Greatest Story Ever Told.”

4:30-RFI—Phil Harris wants a favor from the mayor. When he gets to the city hall he finds it is “Boys’ Week” and the reigning mayor is Jullus, that demon grocery boy. This is his chance to “fix” his rival.

5:30-KFI—Patsy Kelly will be permanent member of “Henry Morgan’s” show. She will play the role of the man-hunting proprietress of his favorite cigar store.

6:00-KNX—Helen Hayes stars in the radio version of “The Farmer Takes a Wife.”

6:00-KMPC—Neil Petree, chairman Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce metropolitan traffic and transit committee discusses “Metropolitan Transportation Difficulties and Corrective Legislation.”

8:00-KHJ—Fulton Oursler, editor and author, will be the guest of the week on that parlor game program, “Twenty Questions.”