

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:30-KFI—Judy Canova will corral a horse named Morning Glory but, unfortunately, the corral is her own living room . . . neighbors object . . . but all are amazed at his performance at the track . . . it's the pay-off that counts.

7:00-KNX—Two new clues for "Sing It Again" fans. . . . He had a southern ancestry and his father practiced masonry. . . . No. 2, "Though he's achieved a lot of fame, you know him by a different name." There is $18,500 in this one.

8:30-KNX—"Gangbusters" tells the story of "The Case of the Red-Headed Robber." . . . A bandit queen terrorizes the city streets by night, until an alert patrolman proves that hair dye sometimes reveals more than it hides.

9:30-KHJ—"Experience Speaks" through the story of Alexander Kerensky, prime minister of the first Russian Republic, and a wrestler studying for grand opera.