

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

10:30 a. m.-W-G-N-Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "When Does Juvenile Delinquency Lead to Serious Crime?"

1:00 p. m.-WMAQ-U.S. In World Affairs: "World Exchange and Development." Agriculture Secretary Charles F. Brannon; John J. McCloy, president, World Bank, and Willard Thorpe, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs.

3:35-WMAQ-Living, 1949: "The Ramparts We Watch." Guests: Gen. Bradley, Lt. Gen. Huebner, Lt. Gen. Walker, and Gen. Eisenhower.

8:00-W-G-N, WGMB-Homecoming, 1949: John Garfield and Lilli Palmer co-star in broadcast in co-operation with United Jewish appeal, Mortimer B. Harris, chairman, Chicago combined Jewish appeal will speak from Chicago.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

1:00 p. m.-W-G-N, WGMB-Ted Lewis show with Geraldine Du Bois.

1:30-WMAQ-University Theater: "Jane Eyre" by Charlotte Bronte.

5:30-WMAQ-Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis show, with Mary Hatcher, Florence McMichael; Dick Stabile and orchestra, and Bob Hope, first guest star. Premiere.

7:30-WMAQ-Henry Morgan show with Patsy Kelly and Lisa Kirk.

8:00-WBBM-Helen Hayes stars in "Shadow On The Heart."

8:00-WMAQ-NBC Theater: Bob Hope in "The Ghost Breakers."

8:30-WLS-Theater Guild: "Camille" with Joan Fontaine and Louis Jourdan.

9:30-W-G-N, WGMB-Michael O'Duffy's guest is Rita Lynch, Irish soprano.

MUSIC

2:00 p. m.-WBBM-New York Philharmonic, directed by Leopold Stokowski, plays works of Mozart and Wagner.

4:00-WMAQ-Robert Merrill sings with the Boston Pops orchestra.

4:30-WMAQ-James Melton sings Porter's "So In Love" and with the chorus, Kern's "You Are Love." Frank Black and orchestra. Premiere.

7:30-W-G-N, WGMB-Smoke Rings, with Skip Farrell, Brookes Randall, and Robert Trendler and the orchestra.