

Highlights of Today's Radio Broadcasts, Classified

Special Events

9:30 p. m.—Peace Is Our Business (WBBM): anniversary of Economic Cooperation administration; Administrator Paul G. Hoffman, pickups from Europe; story of program.

Religion

9 a. m.—National Radio Pulpit (WMAQ): "Keep Your Balance" . . . Church of the Air (WBBM): "Our Homes: Divinely Ordained," Elder E. T. Benson, Mormon.

10:30 a. m.—Hour of Faith (WISC): "Stand Fast With the Lord."

11:30 a. m.—Ave Maria Hour (WISC): "Blessed Francis de Capillas."

5 p. m.—Catholic Hour (WMAQ): "It Takes Three to Make Love."

Discussion

10:30 a. m.—Reviewing Stand (WKOW): "When Does Juvenile Delinquency Lead to Serious Crime?", Judge J. M. Braude, Chicago; Dr. Sybylle Escalona, Menninger foundation; Dr. Ralph Rabinovitch, University of Michigan.

1 p. m.—U. S. in World Affairs (WIBA): "World Exchange and Development;" Charles F. Bran-non, secretary of agriculture; Willard Thorpe, assistant secretary of state; John J. McCloy, World bank president.

MELTON

HOPE

2 p. m.—Encore (WHA): "Berlin—Key to European Settlement," Prof. Chester V. Easum.

Drama

10 a. m.—Destination Freedom (WMAQ): story of Countee Culen, Negro poet.

11:30 a. m.—Eternal Light (WMAQ): discovery of earliest complete Bible manuscript.

1:30 p. m.—University Theater (WIBA): Deborah Kerr in "Jane Eyre."

5 p. m.—Family Hour (WBBM): Jane Wyman in "Angel," story of early Red Cross operations.

5:30 p. m.—Ozzie and Harriet (WBBM): move to Columbia network.

8 p. m.—NBC Theater (WIBA): Bob Hope in "The Ghost Breakers" . . . Homecoming 1949 (WGN): John Garfield and Lilli Palmer in story of refugee couple's trek from Europe to Israel

. . . Helen Hayes (WBBM): in Win Brooks' "Shadow on the Heart," tender love story.

8:30 p. m.—Theater Guild (WISC): Joan Fontaine and Louis Jourdan in "Camille."

Documentary

3:35 p. m.—Living — 1949 (WMAQ): "The Ramparts We Watch," report on 600,000 U. S. soldiers at home and abroad; pickups from Berlin, Tokyo, Washington, Ft. Myer, Va.

Music

10 a. m.—Fine Arts Quartet (WISC): "Quartet in C Minor," Brahms.

1 p. m.—Symphonette (WBBM): Frank Glazer, Milwaukee pianist, "Cornish Rhapsody," "Zampa" overture, "Whispering Flowers."

2 p. m.—N. Y. Philharmonic-Symphony (WBBM): Leopold Stokowski, conductor; excerpts from "Goetterdaemmerung," Wagner; "Symphony No. 40," Mozart.

3:30 p. m.—Madison Civic Symphony (WHA): in Masonic auditorium.

3:35 p. m.—Jane Pickens (WIBA): at new hour; "Who Built de Ark," "I Dreamed I Heard an Organ Play," "One Alone."

KERR

FONTAINE

4 p. m.—Robert Merrill (WIBA): and Boston "Pops" at new time; "Ma Belle," Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," Franck's "Panis Angelicus," "Der Rosenkavalier" waltzes, "Kentucky Babe," "Tik Tak Polka," "Invictus."

4:30 p. m.—James Melton (WIBA): and Frank Black's orchestra move to NBC; "April in Paris," "So in Love," "E Lucevan le Stelle," "Blow, Gabriel, Blow," "Daybreak."

6 p. m.—Music of Today (WISC): new series; Aaron Copland speaks; all-Copland program.

8 p. m.—Pro Arte Quartet (WHA): in Music hall.

8:30 p. m.—Familiar Music (WIBA): "I Only Have Eyes for

You," "Maybe," "I'll Forget You," "In Old Madrid," "Rose of the World."

9:30 p. m.—Michael O'Duffy (WGN): and Rita Lynch, Dublin singer.

Variety

1 p. m.—Ted Lewis (WGN): new series.

5:30 p. m.—Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis (WIBA): new series with Flo McMichael, Mary Hatcher, Dick Stable's orchestra; Bob Hope, guest.

7 p. m.—Fred Allen (WIBA): and "Doc" Rockwell.

Quiz

9:30 p. m.—Who Said That? (WIBA): Ralph Bellamy, Russel Crouse, John Lardner, guests.

MERRILL

WYMAN