

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6, KNX—Walter Huston, winner of an Academy Award this year, will be starred in "Lightnin'."

7, KFI—Chester Riley despises cowardice, a fact which he has a chance to prove to his son when he hitches a ride only to find himself driven by a notorious "gangster"; it is actually Burt Lancaster.

7:30, KHJ—When the "Cisco Kid's" friend, Rip Rogan, wants to marry the boss' daughter he runs into trouble, including a murder rap . . . the romantic and indomitable team of Cisco and Pancho save the day for him.

9, KNX—When Lucille Ball fails to get her gum out of a penny machine she becomes so enraged that she wrecks a few dozen vending machines before she finds peace and quiet in the local bastille.

9:30, KNCA—There are many surprises in store for that ace detective, "Bulldog Drummond," during the case of "The Counterfelt Corpses."