

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:15-KECA—"Special Event" will salute "Army Day—1949" when when they visit The Presidio for a look behind the scenes of the oldest coastal defense training school in the country.

6:00-KNX—Philip Marlowe finds himself tangled up in a murder caper that hinges on "The Name to Remember" when the clues add up to a partner from Mexico, a man with a cauliflower ear and a corpse on a concrete floor.

7:00-KHJ—Tami Mauriello heads an impressive list of "V. I. P.'s" in the boxing world who will be contestants on the "Take a Number" quiz fest.

9:00-KNX—Spike Jones and his City Slickers have cooked up a weird medley of music to make their guest, Boris Karloff, feel perfectly at home when they broadcast from Boston. . . . That proper city has a treat in store when the boys show them how the other half lives through a routine based on that novelty tune, "All Right, Louie, Drop That Gun."

9:30-KFI—Herbert Marshall will introduce June Lockart, who was such a sensation in her first Broadway appearance. For "Hollywood Star Theater" she will portray the daughter of a man who has made a second marriage to a gangster's girl friend.

TELEVISION SCHEDULE