TODAY

12:00-KNX—Bruno Walter returns to the Philharmonic-Symphony to conduct two Beethoven works, "Symphony No. 6 in F-Major" and "No. 5 in C-Minor."

3:30-KFI—"Harvest of Stars" will salute Canada when it broadcasts from Vancouver, featuring Nora Grennan, who will be guest soloist, with the Vancouver Symphony and a chorus of Canadian singers.

3:30-KECA—In response to numerous requests, "The Greatest Story Ever Told" will present "The Betrayal and the Crucifixion," the story of Judas at the Last Supper.

6:30-KECA—Burgess Meredith and Joyce Redman will be starred in Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew"—that hilarious comedy in which the husband manages to change his wife into a gentle, submissive woman.

7:00-KHJ—"Here Comes the Bride, There Goes the Groom" . . . that's the tune to which the "Mayor of the Town" finds himself dancing when a local widow misunderstands his intentions.

8:00-KNX—When a plane crashes with a cargo of olives, a strange adventure unfolds for Rocky Jordan. . . . He is confronted by an insurance man who presents him with a check for $2500 covering the loss . . . the only catch is that the loss covers 150 cases, and not the mere five that actually was shipped.
