

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:30-KFI-Star soprano Eleanor Steber is featured soloist on tonight's "Voice of Firestone."

6:00-KNX-The stirring drama of a poor French girl who sees a vision and acquires healing powers is featured on tonight's "Radio Theater." Anne Baxter and Charles Bickford will star in "The Song of Bernadette."

7:00-KNX-"My Friend Irma" provides a laugh episode tonight, with the blonde innocent gal in a new situation.

8:00-KECA-The Rudolf Friml comic opera, "The Firefly," comes to life this evening on "The Railroad Hour." Metropolitan Opera star Nadine Conner, with singing host Gordon MacRae, are casts in leading roles.

8:00-KHJ-George Valentine runs up against a mysterious case, when he meets with a painter who is slowly killing his wife by means of voodoo on tonight's "Let George Do It" show.

9:00-KFI-Nelson Eddy, American baritone, is guest soloist on the "Telephone Hour."