

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:30-KNX — Loretta Young and Douglas Fairbanks will star in "Aftermath," a dramatized appeal for funds to aid Europe through the relief organization, CARE. This signalizes a campaign conducted by the American Federation of Labor to send a million dollars in CARE packages to Europe.

6:30-KHJ — For the last three years Ethel Barrymore has presented "The Passion and Death of Christ" as taken directly from the Scriptures. This year "Family Theatre" brings this to you as its Easter offering.

7:00-KNX—A special program of Easter music is presented by Lucille Norman and her guests. They lead off with the well loved "Easter Parade" and conclude with "The Lord's Prayer."

9:00-KECA — Bing Crosby, alumnus of Gonzaga, will play host to his school's glee club, and with them will introduce the school's new official song, "Gonzaga Men." During the rib and jab portion of the show his undergraduate career will be explored by the assembled cast. Will he rate an honorary degree?

9:30-KFI — A romantic triangle, involving a handsome gem thief, leads to murder in "The Case of the Tell-tale Clip" which "Mr. District Attorney" solves with the help of a clue from a pawn shop.