TONIGHT—

6:00-KFI—Eddie Cantor finds it a little difficult to explain his five daughters and a grandson when he tries to convince his sponsor that he is really a young man, on tonight's "Eddie Cantor Show."

7:00-KNX—"The Diary of Sophronia Winters" is the story of an insane husband's desire to kill his wife, whom he believes murdered his brother. The wife keeps a frightening day by day account of her mad husband's attempts to kill her.

8:30-KHJ—Film actress Claire Trevor, film columnist Shellah Graham and crooner Dick Haymes team with lovely Betty Rhodes in a program of popular renditions of current hit tunes on the "Yours for a Song" program.

9:00-KNX—Lucille Ball gets all set for a swanky vacation, while husband George prepares for a trailer tour on tonight's "My Favorite Husband" program. A deadlock is reached when they can't decide who will go where, and they finally agree to separate vacations.

9:30-KECA—"Bulldog Drummond" meets face-to-face with a killer, who is his own double on tonight's exciting episode. Drummond finds himself being hunted for a killing in which he had no part on tonight's thrilling "Bulldog Drummond" series, entitled "The Hunted."

TOMORROW, APRIL 30—

3:30-KFI—The NBC Symphony Orchestra opens with its first of four successive spring concerts today. Conductor Erich Leinsdorf has selected the music of Mozart and Stravinsky for this first program.

4:30-KFI—The Duluth Symphony Orchestra is to be featured on today's "Pioneers of Music" program. The program will consist of music by Austrian pioneers conducted by Joseph Wagner.
