

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

6:00-KFI—Feeling that the people of Europe not only need food and supplies, but that they should also be given American entertainment to help raise their morale, Eddie Cantor will set up shows especially designed to fit each country.

7:00-KHJ—Maurice Chevalier will invite two talented entertainers to return to his program "This Is Paris"—Aime Barelli, trumpet star, and Vocalist Line Renaud.

8:30-KECA—"The Tropical Shake-down," the FBI story tonight, demonstrates how the first payment to an extortioner may well be the down payment on perpetual misery.

9:00-KNX—An old home movie reveals that both Liz Cooper and Mrs. Atterbury, the boss' wife have become curvier with the years. Both decide to trim down.

11:15-KNX—Bing Crosby will join the cast of notables on "The Run For the Roses . . . The Story of the Kentucky Derby," a special broadcast saluting the "diamond jubilee of America's turf classic.

TOMORROW—

2:15-KNX—"They're off" . . . the annual contest of the nation's greatest thoroughbreds . . . the Kentucky Derby.

3:30-KFI—The second concert of the N. B. C. Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Erich Leinsdorf, will present a program of the music of Handel, Schubert, Verdi and Strauss.

4:50-KFI—The Provo Symphony Orchestra of Provo, Utah, will be heard in a program titled "American Pioneer—19th Century," featuring the music of MacDowell and Converse.