TODAY

12:00-KNX—The summer series of the CBS Symphony Orchestra will feature music from Handel's oratorio, "Solomon," and Sibelius' tone poem, "En Saga."

4:30-KFI—Mother's Day turns into a celebration resembling a Fourth of July in the Harris-Faye household when Phil plans another lovely surprise for Alice.

6:00-KFI—"It's a Wonderful Life"—that ethereal fantasy in which a man wishes he were dead and gets his wish—has James Stewart as its well chosen lead.

7:30-KHJ—Loretta Young and Charles Boyer star in the special Mother's Day broadcast of "The World's Greatest Mother," which chronicles the events which occurred around Fatima, Portugal, in 1917, when the warning and counsel of a mother occurred in a visitation at that place.

9:30-KECA—Pat Novak almost loses his shirt when he picks up the wrong laundry and is confronted by a gal and a gunman who are looking for a "special shirt."

11:00-KHJ—A pro and con discussion of the President's proposed health program will be debated by Dr. Paul Hawley and Dr. Harold Oppice, who oppose the legislation, while Lester Velle and Rep. Andrew Blemler will speak on its behalf.
