

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:30-KNX—With Clifton Fadiman as host, and Playwright George S. Kaufman and Abe Burrows forming a permanent advisory panel of experts, "This Is Broadway," a new variety show with a purpose, makes its debut tonight. Helen Hayes is the first guest adviser on this program.

7:00-KHJ — The "Ayrshire Air Show," which is sponsored by the Ayrshire Breeders Association, will feature Herb Shriner as emcee, Marilyn Maxwell as vocalist, and radio and screen personalities Ezra Stone and Jackie Kelt.

7:30-KNX—At this new time for "Hollywood Music Hall," Lucille Norman invites Danny Scholl, who won a popularity poll as the most promising young singer, to assist her.

8:00-KFI — Little Cookie enlists Blondie's aid in making fudge for the Girl Scouts . . . but when Dagwood and Alexander attempt to duplicate this goody, things boil over.

9:30-KFI—"The Case of No Law" tonight enables "Mr. D. A." to halt a bold racket and put a killer in jail.