

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

4:00-KNX—Dorothy McGuire plays the title role in Booth Tarkington's "Alice Adams," the story of a young girl whose lack of confidence makes her affect a sophisticated attitude, which fools none but herself.

6:00-KFI—Continuing with his campaign to match Harry von Zell with a leading contender for the heavyweight boxing championship, Eddie Cantor settles on former champion Max Baer (who will be a guest on the program) as Harry's first opponent.

7:00-KECA—A blow-by-blow description of the long-awaited bout between Vince Foster, welterweight, and Charley Fusari is scheduled for 10 rounds from Madison Square Garden tonight.

8:00-KECA—How Brad Runyon is called upon to solve a murder involving a famous baseball player whose only weakness is in the field of amour is related on "The Fat Man" tonight.

8:30-KHJ—Maureen O'Hara and Buddy Clark will be the guests of Sheila Graham on "Yours for a Song."

TOMORROW—

1:00-KNX—At this time the famous Preakness race will be aired from the Pimlico track in Maryland.

3:30-KFI—Erich Leinsdorf has chosen the music of Beethoven and Liszt for his third concert in the spring series of the symphony orchestra.