

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:00-KNX—Cowboy star Gene Autry will tell of the time he was thrown into jail, and illustrates the episode with songs from his western repertoire.

6:00-KNX—Philip Marlowe is hired to find a gambler's marker, but finds a murder instead. It was only a promise to pay $1000, but it meant the future of two men, freedom to a third and the death of a girl.

7:00-KFI—Dennis Day joins the Weaverville police force and as his first official act . . . tags the chief's car. . . . The schemes to try to get Dennis out of the dog-house would unsettle even the FBI.

7:30-KHJ—When Nick Kenny, song writer; Gordon Jenkins, bandleader, and Eugenia Baird, songstress, compete for the prizes on the "Take a Number" quiz, it should prove quite a lively session.

8:30-KECA—To mark the 10th anniversary of the Textile Workers Union, they will offer a special program, titled "From Where We Came." Screen stars, as well as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Gov. Bowles of Connecticut, will take part in this presentation.