CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist throughout the world on Sunday, The Golden Text is: "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. (Matthew 6:22.)"

Ernst Friedlander, cellist, and Marie Friedlander, pianist, opened the University of Wisconsin's centennial music festival Sunday night with a sonata recital which a small Music hall audience found thoroughly enjoyable.

Feature of the program was the first American performance of Max Reger's "Sonata, Opus 28," a most listenable work which brought Mr. and Mrs. Friedlander back for four bows. Never spectacular, it nevertheless demands clear-cut tones, technical agility, and a sense of the dramatic. These demands the Friedlanders met, particularly in the energetic and somewhat heroic opening movement and the singing intermezzo—almost a serenade.

The festival will continue Wednesday at 8 p. m. with the Pro Arte quartet and assisting artists and Saturday at 8 p. m. with a festival concert by more than 500 students participating.

RECITAL: Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Vollstedt, of the Wisconsin School of Music, will present a group of pupils in the first of their spring voice recitals at Esther Vilas hall Saturday at 7:15 p. m.

Members of the various crews are Bob Holm, Lois Brustman, Bill Heine, Jane Ramsperger, Joyce Pielmeier, Pat Hammer, Fran Schumacher, Alma Reese, Lois Gilling, Raelyn Stroud, Mary Waters, and Nancy Jueds.

RECITAL: Pupils of Maria Syllm will give a piano recital at Kyser.

MU PHI EPSILON: Music written by members of the Madison Alumnae club of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music sorority, will make up the program after its luncheon Saturday in the Memorial Union. The music, of which records will be played, is by Mrs. Barthold Bouricius, Mrs. F. J. Champion, and Mrs. Edward J. Law.

Several members of the Milwaukee Alumnae club will be guests at the luncheon, scheduled for 12:30 p. m.

New officers of the Madison group are Mrs. Elton B. Anderson, president; Mrs. Bouricius, vice-president; Mrs. H. W. Rusch, secretary, and Marie G. Neuman, treasurer.

TOP TUNES: Here are the 10 top tunes of the country, as shown by the Billboard's latest survey of record and sheet music sales, performances, and other factors; they're listed in order of popularity:

- "Forever and Ever" . . . "Cruising Down the River" . . . "A-You're Adorable" . . . "Careless Hands" . . . "Riders in the Sky" . . . "Again" . . . "Red Roses for a Blue Lady" . . . "Sunflower" . . . "I Don't See Me in Your Eyes Anymore" . . . "Some Enchanted Evening."

RADIO ROW: Mr. and Mrs. Freeman (Amos) Gosden will become the parents of a child in September, they have revealed.

Horace Heidt's show will tour the Pacific Northwest for about four weeks in late June and July. A transcontinental trip will begin in October.
