

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KNX—Once again "Woman's Forum" presents a program featuring opportunities of the sex in the postwar world.

7:00-KECA — When one of his agents is murdered, David Harding. "Counterspy." follows the trail and finds the criminal, in "The Case of the Cold-blooded Professor."

8:00-KECA—Thomas Filas' Rhapsody for Oboe" will be heard as the solo played by the composer on Rex Maupin's musical program.

8:30-KFI—A person well known in the sporting world will see his life pass in review on Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life."

9:30-KHJ—Gene Sarazen won the 1932 British Open golf tourney because he hired a certain caddy. This will be the once-in-a-lifetime feature of "Inside of Sports."