TONIGHT

8:00-KFI—The trouble with opera, according to Archie of "Duffy's Tavern," is that nobody can understand it. He hires Ed Wynn to help him improve the art. The result is mayhem.

7:30-KNX—Eula Beal, noted contralto, will add her lovely voice to Lucille Norman's "Hollywood Music Hall." She will sing "Thine Alone" and "Your Eyes Shine in My Own."

8:30-KHJ — Esther Williams will be hostess to John Charles Thomas when "Family Theater" presents "The Man With the Plow." This has been written to allow Mr. Thomas to interpolate the drama with songs.

9:00-KECA—Horse opera replaces the Met for Dorothy Kirsten when she visits Bing Crosby tonight, but her fine talent will not be wasted for she will sing a solo from "Porgy and Bess" and join Bing in the hit tune, "Again."

9:30-KFI—When a young actress tries to conquer the narcotic habit, a shadow from her past blocks her efforts, but records of the Treasury Department pertaining to drug peddlers help "Mr. District Attorney" solve "The Case of the Wrong Secret."
