

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KFI—As a fitting climax for his "Music Hall" series, Al Jolson has invited Groucho Marx and Adele Norman to be his guests. As suggestions for Al to fill his free time, Groucho will try to sell him a few business ventures, including an ice house and a dancing school. Miss Norman, a young soprano, will make her debut on a national network when she sings "Through the Years."

6:30-KECA—In addition to the musical portion of the program, Yvonne De Carlo will be guest quiz conductor on "Name the Movie."

7:00-KFI—With Kirk Douglas and Ava Gardner in the leading roles, the "Screen Guild Players" will present "Flesh and Fantasy," the story of a circus acrobat who loses his nerve after he dreams that he has fallen.

8:00-KNK—A racketeer seeks to re-enter this country in "Criminal Cargo." His gang pretends to help, but they are only trying to locate the loot taken in a former robbery. . . . All goes well until the "FBI" steps in to foil their plans.

10:30-KHJ — Arthur Whittmore and Jack Lowe, a duo-piano team who have gained renown in the musical world, will appear on the "Deems Taylor Concert" tonight.